OneSearch Account

MCS library cardholders may get a free guest account to use computers in the libraries with your MCS ID. In addition, you may log into OneSearch to view your library accounts. Please visit the circulation/reserves counter in Bracken Library to receive a temporary password for logging in the first time.

Borrowing Materials

Current MCS employees can borrow materials from the University Libraries.

- General collection, educational resources, music collection, mystery collection books, and branch library materials: 4 weeks
- Government publications, maps, bestsellers: 2 weeks
- Videos/Films: 4 days

Recalls: General collection, music collection, and branch library materials are subject to recall by other users after two weeks. Materials needed for course reserve will be immediately recalled. All users are required to return borrowed materials promptly when they are recalled.

Exceptions: Course reserve materials may not be checked out with an MCS Library card. Some materials from the Architecture Library and the Music Collection may be available for in-room-use only. Interlibrary loan services are not available to MCS cardholders.

Information Literacy

MCS staff can collaborate with a Ball State librarian to develop lively and interactive presentations and classes for MCS students about searching for, evaluating, and citing resources (library and non-library). Presentations are tailored to support your planned curriculum/topics and include content that addresses Indiana Academic Standards. Students also can receive individualized one-on-one help as they work on research projects. Contact Lisa Jarrell for more information.
