Muncie Police Department Victim Advocate

765-747-4777

300 N High St, Muncie, IN 47305

Advocates offer victims information about the different options available to them and support victims' decision-making. Advocates do not tell victims what to do. Advocates are committed to maintaining the highest possible levels of confidentiality in their communications with victims. However, the level of confidentiality they can observe depends on their position, education, licensure, and the laws in each state. An advocate in a police department may have to share any information related to an investigation with officers.

We offer an array of human services to Indiana children and families. Guided by our vision of a healthy family for every child, highly-trained case managers identify and address issues that tear families apart. They do so in different ways: Prevent – Empower families with professional support and community resources to eliminate issues that lead to entry into the child welfare system. Intervene – Work with families who find themselves in the “system” to accomplish the required goals to keep their children. Protect – Recruit and strengthen foster and adoptive homes. Support – Mentor older youth transitioning from foster care to independent living.

Emergency Assistance helps clients in need pay their rent or utility bills before eviction or utility shut-offs occur. Once assistance has been provided, we work with these community members to budget their income and resources in the future. Emergency Assistance typically benefits those in need of help with rent or utilities, but may also be available for other emergency needs. Utility and rent assistance is by appointment only, and can only be received one time per year.

Must bring: Social security cards for ALL members of the household (including children); Picture ID for ALL adults living in the household; Proof of income for the WHOLE household for the last 30 days; Receipts of bills paid in the last 30 days; AND Copies of ALL bills that you pay each month. If needing help with rent or a rental deposit clients must bring a copy of their lease.
